PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION POLICY

It is Llandeilo and District Civic Society's (the 'Society') Policy to ensure it collects, maintains and processes personal data in compliance with the UK's Data Protection Act 2018.

CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED BY THE SOCIETY

The Society's main reason for collecting personal data is to maintain a membership list and inform members of forthcoming events and activities. Data collected is limited and consists of name and contact details such as postal and email addresses and membership payment details. This information (data) is included on an electronic database and will not be divulged to anyone outside the Society.

KEY PRINCIPLES

Personal data shall be:

- processed fairly, lawfully and transparently
- collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes
- adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary
- accurate with every reasonable step taken to ensure that data are up to date
- kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed
- processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data

Individuals have the following rights:

- the right to be informed about how your data is being used
- the right of access to personal data
- the right to rectify incorrect data
- the right to have data erased
- the right to restrict processing
- the right to object to how your data is processed in certain circumstances
